THE 1986 TORCH IS DEDICATED TO

OUR PARENTS

IN DEEP APPRECIATION

FOR THEIR

UNDYING SUPPORT AND

CEASELESS LOVE.

Mom and Dad

You have always been there
Giving us confidence and love
We may not know our future,
But, because of you
We're on our way!

Thanks

The junior prom, being one of the most important events in high school was a great success for the Class of 1986. Juniors, along with their escorts, were able to express themselves through the lastest fashions. It was wonderful to see everyone so elegantly dressed. As a whole, the junior prom was great. The band, 9th Street, provided an entertaining evening for all. A great many thank you's must be given to Mr. Cronin, Mrs. Kirkcaldy, and to the Junior class officers, for all their time and effort towards the junior prom.

IT TAKES A CERTAIN KIND OF PERSON

It takes a certain kind of person to feel.
It takes a certain kind of person to be real.
A person who is strong.
A person who knows when he's wrong.

It takes a certain kind of person to understand.
It takes a certain kind of person to lend a helping hand.
A person who knows about mankind

It takes a certain kind of person to love.
It takes a certain kind of person to be above.
A person who is true.
A person who could be you.

REVERSE FROWN

Laughter is a remedy for troubles at hand,
Like fingers and feet tickling through California sand.
Though problems arise and tears may appear,
Laughter carries the water through the atmosphere.

Life seems hard and better at times,
People look ahead without you in mind.
But in the crowd, a laugh is heard
And the problem at hand's not so absurd.

The day's work may be of unknown deeds,
And others know more of your wants and needs,
But lift your head to those you're meeting,
Nod, smile, and make a laugh your greeting.

You see, laughter really is a remedy
For people everywhere like you and me.
A "reverse frown" on a theatre mask
Making laughter a most worthwhile task.

The 1985 Viking baseball team followed up its fine '84 season by competing in post-season play for the second straight year.

After beginning the season with a dismal 2-6 mark, the Vikings went on to win out of their next games with sophomore pitchers Fred George (8-1) and Robby Kenn (3-2) leading the way. Shortstop Eamon Kingman returned for his third year to ignite the team, serving as co-captain along with catcher Russ Kenn.

After the season, Kingman, Russ Kenn, and right fielder Derrek Tom traveled to Sandwich to represent the Vikings in the All-League game. With a young and experienced team returning, a promising '86 season lies ahead for the Vikings. Jay Gillespie

MEMORIAL PRAYER READ BY GORDON T. ROSS November 12, 1985

Thank you, Lord,
for each new day you give to me.
For earth and sky
and sand and sea.
For rainbows after springtime showers,
autumn leaves and summer flowers.
Winter snowscapes so serene,
harvest fields of gold and green.
Lilac scent and robin sound,
stars that twinkle high above
and all the people that I love.

GOD BLESS A MOST PRECIOUS PERSON
AS HE SO BLESSED US IN KNOWING HER.
